Let's Try
KANAZAWA!

Japan.
Endless
Discovery.

Welcome to Kanazawa!

A city that prides itself in the colors of Kenrokuen Garden throughout the four seasons, in the clear water of the Saigawa and Asanogawa rivers, in its abundant greenery, and in its refined traditional culture - and at the same time incorporates modern elements as it continues to develop. This is the city of Kanazawa.

Experience Kanazawa!

The items that we are featuring here are just one small part of Kanazawa. The city's identity is made up of many characteristics that cannot be found in other Japanese cities. Be sure to experience for yourself all of the various "Kanazawas" that are scattered about the city and are integral parts of it.

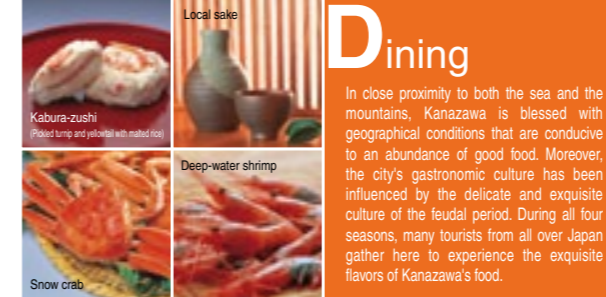

City of Crafts

In June of 2009, Kanazawa was appointed into the "Crafts and Folk Art" category for UNESCO's "Creative Cities Network".

Shopping

If you are thinking of taking home a bit of Kanazawa's traditional culture, there are many items for you to choose from. Even the smallest of Kanazawa's refined traditional crafts are full of the city's distinct character.

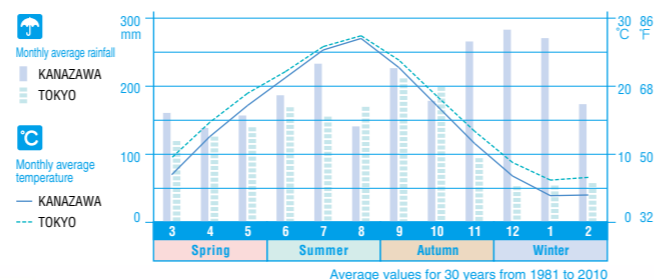

Dining

In close proximity to both the sea and the mountains, Kanazawa is blessed with geographical conditions that are conducive to an abundance of good food. Moreover, the city's gastronomic culture has been influenced by the delicate and exquisite culture of the feudal period. During all four seasons, many tourists from all over Japan gather here to experience the exquisite flavors of Kanazawa's food.

Sightseeing

Kanazawa is a city that preserves its traditional culture in the everyday life of its citizens, yet at the same time adopts new culture. If you walk just a little way, you will see how the old and the new coexist.

- The weather in Kanazawa is changeable. Since the city gets a relatively large amount of rain, there is a proverb that translates as "Even if you forget your packed lunch, don't forget your umbrella." We recommended that you always be prepared with rain gear such as your umbrella when going out sightseeing.
- Average temperature: 14.3°C (for a normal year)
 - Maximum temperature: 35.8 (2011)
 - Minimum temperature: -4.0 (2011)
 - Number of rainy days per year: 178.1 (for a normal year)
 - Average humidity: 73% (for a normal year)

Would you like to experience the techniques of Kanazawa's delicate and elegant traditional crafts? There are many crafts to experience from pasting gold leaf, to the stencil dying of Kaga Yuzen, to even making your own Wagashi and much more.

Kanazawa's hot springs

Yuwaku Hot Spring (Number of inns : 9)

With its new greenery in the spring, crimson leaves in the fall, and snowy winter scenery, this hot spring has been visited by many of Japan's well-known people. It has a particularly strong connection with the painter Takehisa Yumeji, who is famous for his paintings of beautiful women. Also, there is an "ice room" that has been used every year since ancient times to store natural snow until the summer, as well as related events.

21st Century Museum of Contemporary Art, Kanazawa / Kenrokuen Garden and Vicinity

One can summarize the attraction of present-day Kanazawa as "coexistence of modernity and tradition". For example, by simply venturing a little distance away from the downtown area that bustles with young people, you can come across a streetscape dating back several centuries. This is the area that symbolizes the attraction of present-day Kanazawa. The 21st Century Museum of Contemporary Art, Kanazawa exhibits a wide range of modern art by artists from all over the world; you can spend a long time there without tiring of the exhibits. Kanazawa Castle Park is a symbol of Kanazawa's traditional culture, and Kenrokuen Garden was created as the castle garden by successive generations of lords, beginning more than 300 years ago. As one of the three most famous gardens of Japan, it attracts many tourists. This area, in which newness and traditional culture coexist, is truly representative of modern-day Kanazawa.

4 Kanazawa Castle Park 金沢城公園
 Full-scale construction of Kanazawa Castle began more than 400 years ago. Many of its buildings were burned down in repeated fires, but several structures, such as Ishikawa Gate and Sanjikken Nagaya, are still standing. Recently, Gojikken Nagaya and some other parts of the castle were restored to their original form. Another attraction of the park is its great variety of stone walls, which cannot be found anywhere else in Japan.

Kanazawa lessons 1

Kanazawa is a city steeped in tea ceremony, where you can easily experience the world of tea. In particular, it is possible to have tea at the Shigure-tei tea house in Kenroku-en garden without a prior reservation.

By gazing at the garden while enjoying your tea and confectionaries, you too can experience the Japanese ethos.

Korinbo / Kata-machi / Naga-machi and Vicinity

The area that comprises Ishikawa Prefecture, where Kanazawa is located, Toyama Prefecture to the east, and Fukui Prefecture to the west is called Hokuriku. Korinbo/Katamachi is the largest commercial area in Hokuriku. With its concentration of various kinds of people and shops, it is the most important center for both people and products in this area. If you are walking around looking for a place to have lunch or dinner, or to have tea, this is probably the area where you can enjoy yourself the most. People looking for typical Kanazawa dishes, or those who miss the tastes of their home country can probably find the type of restaurant they are looking for here. Of course, this area is also recommended for shopping, and for people who want to spend an evening in Kanazawa enjoying some good drinks. If you go a little beyond the commercial district, you can walk through Nagamachi, an area that brings to mind the streetscape of samurai days. In this area there are also samurai residences and museums that evoke the lifestyle of the feudal period, so if you are interested in samurais and their culture, you should definitely go and have a look.

The Katamachi and Korinbo areas are fun places that are always lively with activity. The entrances to the many shops that line the main drag are covered with awnings, so you can enjoy shopping regardless of rain or snow. At night, the area's izakaya (Japanese-style pubs) are a must visit. In addition to sake and other alcoholic beverages, the izakaya offer fresh fish and other popular Japanese dishes, all for a reasonable price.

The glass dome of Kanazawa Station has the nickname of "Motenashi Dome". Motenashi means "welcoming" or "entertainment"; it is a word that indicates good treatment of guests. The dome expresses the hospitality of the citizens of Kanazawa, who kindly greet and send off people who come to visit the rainy city, in the hope that they will not get wet when starting their journey.

Omi-cho Market, said to be the "kitchen of the citizens of Kanazawa", is located in Musashigatsuji. About 280 years old, it is crammed with rows of seafood and vegetable shops. Looking around at all of the produce, you will get a sense of the market's unique vitality.

Owari-cho, which was once inhabited by merchants and craftsmen, has many old shops that are still in business. You can enjoy the taste of such treats as old-fashioned confections and tsukudani (various foods boiled down in soy sauce). The atmospheric street that goes from Owari-cho to the Kazue-machi Chaya District by the Asanogawa River is the perfect place for a stroll.

Utatsuyama

Higashi Chaya District / Utatsuyama and Vicinity

Higashi means "east", utatsu means "east-southeast"; the names of the Higashi Chaya District and Mt. Utatsu (Utatsu-yama) derive from the fact that they are located in an easterly and east-southeasterly direction, respectively, as seen from Kanazawa Castle.

The Higashi Chaya District is one of three chaya districts in Kanazawa. Its streetscape, which has maintained a strong feudal-period atmosphere, is still throbbing with life. For example, in the evening, under the lights of the houses, you might be lucky enough to meet a group of geisha girls. These are not meant as an attraction for tourists; they are definitely one of the sights of modern Kanazawa that have remained throughout the city's long history. The Higashi Geisha District is an area where you can see and experience for yourself the traditional culture of Kanazawa.

Mt. Utatsu is a mountain that Kanazawa citizens are familiar with as a place to relax that is close to the downtown area. You can go there in the spring to enjoy its cherry blossoms, and in the fall to enjoy its crimson foliage.

The Higashi Chaya District contains many tea houses with long histories, which have been more recently used as Japanese-style cafes. If you need a quick rest from sight-seeing, stopping by one of these cafes for some Japanese confectionaries and matcha tea is the perfect fix. In addition to cafes, the Higashi Chaya District boasts a myriad of souvenir shops and opportunities to try traditional crafts hands-on. It is truly an essential tourist stop if you visit Kanazawa.

No-machi / Tera-machi and Vicinity

Tera means "temple". As the name indicates, there are about 70 temples in Teramachi. About 400 years ago, temples that were dotted around the city were moved to Teramachi and the base of Mt. Utatsu. Myoryuji Temple, known by its nickname of Ninja Temple, will probably surprise you with its various contraptions. The sound of bells at dusk also makes a deep impression on visitors.

Toshiie Maeda, whose body rests in Mt. Nodayama, was the man who built the foundation for the castle town of Kanazawa. His great accomplishments are remembered every year at the beginning of June, in which the Hyakumangoku Festival is held. The festival is widely attended, and with its realistic promenade of heroic warriors, you can experience a taste of the past as if you had time travelled back to the Warring States period.

Get your fill of the elegance of Japanese culture at a ryotei (料亭)

Have you ever been to a ryotei, or Japanese-style restaurant?

In addition to authentic Japanese cuisine,
it offers an experience of various elements of Japanese culture.

Here in Kanazawa, there are many ryotei with a history of several hundred years.

A visit to one of them would be sure to delight you.

Kanazawa - a city of ryotei

A ryotei is a restaurant that serves kaiseki ryori - a set of dishes served on an individual tray. There are many such restaurants in Kanazawa. All you need to do to experience the city's traditional culture is make a reservation. The attractions of a ryotei can be divided into "cuisine", "architecture" and "performing arts".

The architecture of a ryotei

A delicacy presented on a fine plate

Geishas

🌸 Cuisine

Enjoy the essence of Kaga cuisine

The dishes served in Kanazawa's ryotei mainly fall into the category of Kaga cuisine. The flavors are exquisite, as indicated by the fact that Kaga cuisine attracts chefs from Kyoto, a city that also has many ryotei, and from all over Japan for training.

🌸 Architecture

Admire a Japanese house and a Japanese garden at the same time.

Take your time to look around the building. Kanazawa's ryotei are all of an authentic traditional Japanese-style architecture, with a Japanese garden that takes on a new aspect in each of the four seasons.

🌸 Performing arts

Enjoy handicrafts and geisha performances

The food is presented on Kanazawa Kutani ware, the traditional ceramic ware of Ishikawa Prefecture, and Kanazawa lacquerware; all of the dishes are of superb quality. The interior decoration of a ryotei includes folding screens and scroll pictures. Guests can invite geishas to perform. Please have your fill of Kanazawa's many forms of art in a ryotei.

Sushi

Enjoy superb sushi

Because fresh seafood is readily available in Kanazawa, the sushi is outstanding. Be sure to visit the sushi restaurants dotted around the city.
